Australian successes at the Worlds

Pipe Bands Australia congratulates Perth Metro on claiming the World Pipe Band Championship crown in Grade 3B at Glasgow Green last weekend.

The band under pipe major James Cowie won through to the final where it received a first place in piping and ensemble.

Perth Metro was one of four Australian bands at the Worlds with City of Cockburn and North Metro competing in Grade 4B and The Scots College Sydney achieving fifth place in Juvenile A.

Congratulations are also extended to Australians who were members of the victorious Grade 1 band Field Marshall Montgomery - Ian Lyons, Gareth McLees and Scott Wallace - and expat Alisdair McLaren.
